Dear friends

If this is the first time you have read this and you do not know me then you may well think 'who am I to call you friend'? Indeed it may well seem pretentious. However, if I do not view life in this way I create division and separation. I believe that we are all ONE and as such we should ALL be friends. While there are black and white people in our world I would rather say that I SEE people. So it is with countries, I am English because I was born in England. However, I am not sure I am even comfortable with this title or even to say that I am human although this is more inclusive than saying I am English. Titles and words can be restrictive and often cause division. If we look at different religions and history, even today where there is division between peoples because of this. If we believe in the ONE loving God then it should not matter if we have a religion or not but HOW we live our lives – 'do good unto others'.

The old incarnation of this magazine was called 'Universal World Harmony through Service' and I have dropped the words 'World' because there are other worlds than just this one ... I have also dropped the words through Service but only because it may seem like I am preaching to you. I still believe a quote from Sai Baba: "Hands that help are holier than lips that pray" and so the 'through service' is still very important to me and a motivation for the newsletter but perhaps a little more subtle and not in your face.

Whatever day you are having may it be blessed, may the sun shine and may you feel the happiness of God with a smile from your heart.

Have you listened to the birds singing their hearts out in praise to their God? especially when it is such a beautiful day in the universe a universe full of love and harmony all around us if only we could learn to live at ONE with this...

Much love to you all.

Paul

(Opps there I go again, sending you love when you may not know me but then AM I Paul? Or is it that higher force that is in all of us, sending that love to you – to us all?

The Climb ...

“There are many paths up the mountain, but the view at the top is the same.”

Chinese proverb

If faced with a mountain don't look up, don't look down, simply keep climbing - you will eventually reach the top. From that great height you can appreciate the beauty of all around you and the sense of achievement hard work brings.

When at the top hold out your hand of help to those below you but do not forget to look above to the hand which is outstretched to you, for there are as many mountains to climb as there are goals we may aspire to achieve...

“Keep on Keeping on!”

Build Bridges, not Walls

THE GREAT INVOCATION

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of men.
Let Light descend on Earth.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little wills of men.
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out.
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.
Let Light and Love and Power restore the plan on Earth
